Headmaster's Message

The class of '93 has seen many changes at Lick during its four year tenure. In addition, its members have brought about many changes as well! It has been a great pleasure for the faculty and me to chart this course in the company of the Class of '93, and we greatly appreciate your pioneering attitude and enduring spirit of good will.

The most concrete changes since you were ninth graders, of course, have been in the physical plant (as reflected by the cover of this yearbook!). The Class of '93 is the first to have enjoyed the Ehrer-Wynne Theater and Science/Computer Building for four complete years. You also benefited from last year's seismic retrofit of the Shop Building, and are the first graduating class since Lick moved to Ocean Avenue in 1955 to be able to simultaneously breathe and hear in the Classroom Building! This is also the class which led the reincarnation of Lick-Wilmerding's legendary Work Program and succeeded in setting a memorable standard for other classes. To the Class of '93, then, I extend a heartfelt thank you for your role in helping to make Lick's facilities begin to better serve the needs of our students, faculty and programs.

The changes experienced by this year's seniors, of course, have not been limited to the physical plant. Most notable were the long-discussed and much-heralded calender/schedule changes implemented during this academic year. Again, the Class of '93 gamely jumped-in with both feet, swam around, tested the current and water temperature, gave a "thumbs up", along with insightful critiques, and played a leadership role in "easing" us down our new path.

The Class of '93 has exemplified the best of what we think of as "Lick". Gifted in an infinite variety of ways, hard-working and healthily ambitious, this class has also been characterized by a sense of insightfulness, allocentrism and kindness which are really quite remarkable. I join the faculty and the Classes of '94, '95 and '96 in wishing you well and hope you know that a critical role you have played in shaping the Lick-Wilmerding of today and strengthening its foundation for tomorrow. We will miss you.

The 1993 Tiger staff proudly dedicates this book to:

Manny Granillo

A single page in this book can't adequately express all the thanks we owe you, Manny. Our halls are cleaner because of you, the grounds are neater because of you, and our baseball team hits better because of you. You touch our lives in so many ways. Thank you.

Sola Grantham and her grandmother Esther Grantham talk intensely about the last class they attended.

Valerie Coleman opens for Noah Wolfson Day with her role as both a minority and a woman as a media personality.

Eric Wolfson surrounds himself with friends Alissa Carlat, Maggie Cutts, and Robyn Wexler on this special day.

Nato Green, Jennifer Terry, Nate Durbin, Rebekah Krell, and Amber Fleming-Shown.

Rich Nybakken, Irene Feldman, Maria Schell, Mina Kimmerling, and Maleah Mannix.

Zoya Voskeboynikov, Wendy Foster-Leigh, and Lick students listen to Susan Sikora.

Midge Donalds, Goranka Poljak-Hoy, Martin Wasserman, Alec Lee, Ute vonDoyen, and Vincent Casalaina enjoy the B-B-Q.

This year marks the fifth anniversary of Noah Wolfson's death. He died in the spring of his Junior year of Leukemia which he had been fighting for four years. This was the third annual Noah Wolfson Day. The day is dedicated to the memory of Noah and what he believed in. The students attend classes dealing with the theme of the day. This year the day was dedicated to the effects the media has on the public's lives.

Wildcat Lacrosse Teams Advance to Finals

St. Ignatius High School's varsity and JV lacrosse teams each won this week in Northern California Junior Lacrosse Association playoffs, earning both teams spots in the NCJLA championship games tomorrow.

The Wildcats varsity team, 12-0 on the year, crushed the No. 2-seeded Bishop O'Dowd of Oakland, 17-8, at St. Ignatius J. B. Murphy Field on Wednesday, while the junior varsity team knocked off the Tigers Lacrosse Club of Lick-Wilmerding High School, 5-1, on Tuesday.

The Wildcats will play at 11:30 a.m. tomorrow (Saturday, May 16) against Berkeley High School at Foothill College in Los Altos Hills. The JVs will play at 9:30 a.m. against Bishop O'Dowd.

University High School had teams make both the varsity and JV playoffs, but each team fell in the semifinals. The Red Devil varsity squad lost, 9-6, to Berkeley High in Berkeley on Wednesday, while the JVs lost, 9-4, to Bishop O'Dowd, on Tuesday at the Polo Fields.

If the varsity Wildcats win on Saturday, they will advance to the state final four to be held Memorial Day weekend in Santa Barbara.

CIF/Reebok State Cross Country Meet

Lick-Wilmerding's Alexandra Allen was the next San Francisco runner to finish, crossing the line at 19:32 for eighth place.

OAKLAND — Junior midfielder Coby Levy scored his first two goals of the season as the Tigers (4-0-0, 4-3-1) defeated the Jayhawks in a BCL Division II game Thursday.

Lick-Wilmerding has won three games in a row, knocking off league rivals French American, 4-0, and Athenian, 2-1.

The NCJLA junior varsity playoffs begin this afternoon, with round-robin champ St. Ignatius playing the Tigers Lacrosse Club (made up of players from Lick-Wilmerding High School) at SI, and University hosting Bishop O'Dowd at the Polo Fields. The Wildcats won the league with a 9-0 record, while University, O'Dowd and the Tigers were each 7-2.

The championship games will be played on Saturday at Foothill College, with the JVs starting at 10 a.m., and varsity starting at noon. There will also be the state club team championship game at 2 p.m., and a club all-star game at 4 p.m.

Tigers Lose Round in BCL Volleyball

NOV. 17 1992

By Greg Watkins

SAN FRANCISCO — The Lick-Wilmerding Tigers knew they had their work cut out for them. A day after upsetting Bay Counties League co-champion University, they were facing College Prep School of Oakland in the BCL championship game.

Playing a top-ranked team isn't such a new thing. In every game, somebody's got to be ranked higher than the other. But Lick-Wilmerding had already faced College Prep three times this season, and CPS had won them all.

So it was going to be a huge upset or a tough loss for the Tigers, and after an hour and a half at University's Herbst Gym, the Tigers had themselves a tough loss.

College Prep was just a little quicker and hit a little harder, but was definitely challenged in the Cougars' 15-13, 15-9 victory.

"I'm proud of the way we played," said Lisa Wheaton, the Tigers' setter and Most Valuable Player. "It's the best we've played them."

Most everybody agreed, including College Prep coach Monica Bradly. "This by far is the most exciting game they've played against us," said Bradly. "I was worried because Lick has a reputation for raising its level of play in the playoffs."

BCL Volleyball

Bradly was right to worry, as the Tigers sprinted out to a 5-1 lead before the Cougars (15-5) rolled off an 11-1 scoring run on their way to the first win.

The second game was nip-and-tuck early, but CPS pulled away on a 10-2 run to win it.

The title for College Prep marks the first time since 1982 that University High hasn't won the trophy.

College Prep heads to the North Coast Section tournament, and Lick-Wilmerding will try for one of three at-large berths for the tourney.

OCT. 15 1992

By Julian Pascoe

SAN FRANCISCO — The Tigers of Lick-Wilmerding met their fierce rivals, the San Francisco University Red Devils, in a Bay Counties League matchup at Herbst Gymnasium Friday afternoon, and the Red Devils came out on top.

Both teams came into the game with winning records, with the Tigers sporting a 3-2 record, while University remained unbeaten at 3-0.

University posted a 15-6, 8-15, 15-5 victory over Lick-Wilmerding in three intense and hard-fought games.

The first game was dominated by the power hitting of University's Julayne Austin and Sara Pasquinelli, who, along with the rest of the Red Devils, had the Tigers looking lost on the court.

Prep Volleyball

Lick's frontline also had considerable trouble trying to stop Austin's powerful spiking throughout the first period.

The second game, though, swung in Lick's favor. Led by Maggie Cutts and Lisa Wheaton, the Tigers gained their confidence, and began taking the hard-hit balls with precision, while at the same time using the soft touch to place the ball in the middle of the court. At times, the Devil backs weren't getting to the ball fast enough, enabling Lick to take the game.

Unfortunately for the Tigers, their winning ways would end. The Devils kept their composure as Austin continued ramming the ball at Lick, forcing the Tigers into mistakes.

Lick-Wilmerding 46, College Prep 41

SAN FRANCISCO — The Tigers recovered from a dismal first quarter in which they scored only two points to knock off the Jayhawks.

Brian Fruch led Lick-Wilmerding (4-6, 12-13) with 15 points, and David Merrill added 12 for the Tigers.

Emery's Basketball Avalanche Buries Lick-Wilmerding

By Steve Patchett

SAN FRANCISCO — The Emery High Spartans were like an avalanche Friday afternoon — they started out slow, but once they got rolling, they crushed the Lick-Wilmerding Tigers.

Emery's center of attention, 7-foot Arkansas-bound Darnell Robinson, saved his best moves for the second half, turning a seven-point halftime lead into a 63-26 romp at Lick-Wilmerding.

"We took them kind of lightly in the first half. At halftime, coach told us to put them away," said Robinson, who did exactly that.

After pulling down only one rebound in the first half, Robinson began to dominate the boards after intermission, grabbing seven rebounds and tallying 14 of his 23 points.

Tigers center Luke Griffith, who drew the dubious honor of guarding Robinson, said he wasn't intimidated by the 7-footer.

"Not me. I tried to have fun with it. I think he scared some other guys, though," said Griffith.

The Tigers (1-2 in Bay Counties League play, 9-9 overall) were able to stay with the Spartans through the first half thanks to a patient ball-control offense. Kevin Day and Brian Fruch passed the ball conservatively and waited for either Robyn Erman or Griffith to cut under the hoop. The tactic pulled them to within 22-18 in the second quarter, but that's as close as they could get.

In the second half, Emery (2-0, 12-5), ranked first in the state in Division V basketball, pressured Lick's offense and the once-patient Tigers were now turning the ball over on a regular basis.

Emery's Jamaal Gaines and Endeicko Battles both had two steals in the third quarter, and the Spartans capped a run of eight unanswered points with a Robinson alley-oop slam.

Prep Basketball

Lick-Wilmerding 69, Crystal Springs-Uplands 60

HILLSBOROGH — The Tigers made 11 of 12 free throws in the final three minutes to lift Lick-Wilmerding over Crystal Springs-Uplands Tuesday in a BCL game.

Kevin Day's two free throws tied the game at 60-60, and Luke Griffith made six of seven from the line down the stretch to seal the win.

John Male led the Tigers (1-1 in BCL play, 9-8 overall), while Griffith added 16.

Crystal Springs opened up the game with a 3-point barrage that left the Tigers trailing 15-3. "They just kept shooting 3-pointers," said Lick-Wilmerding coach Elliott Smith. "They just couldn't miss."

Lick-Wilmerding managed to draw fouls against CSU's pressure defense late in the game, and won it on the free-throw line.

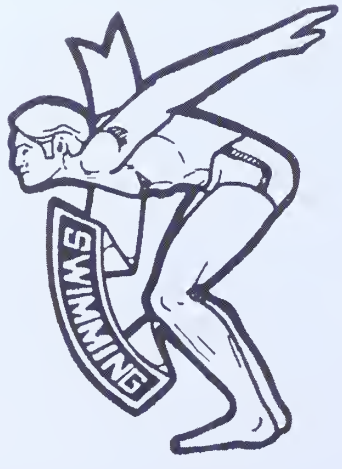
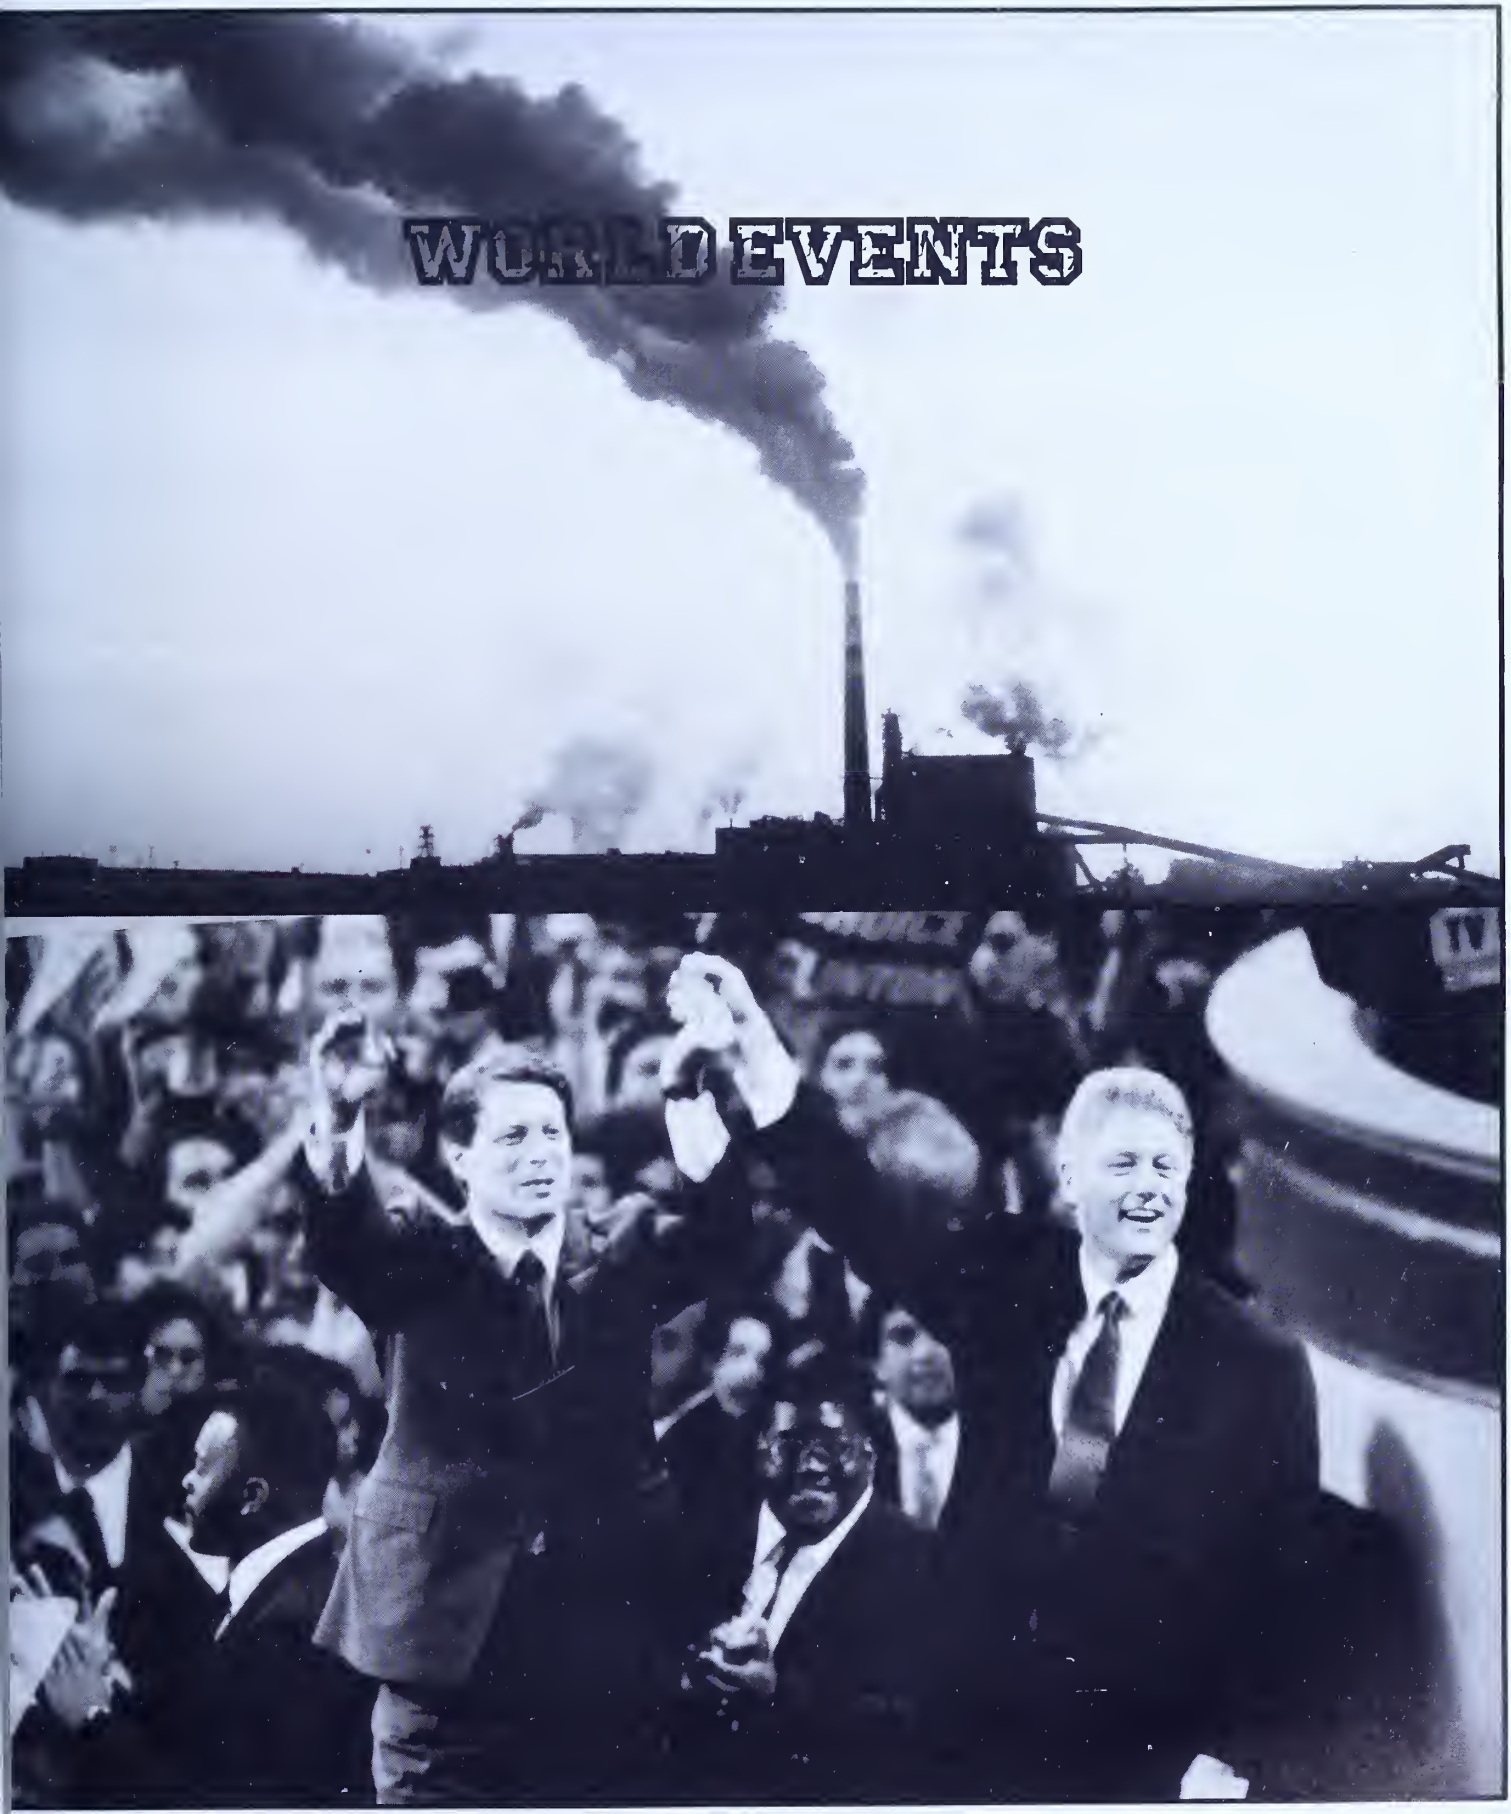
Lick-Wilmerding 4, Emery 2

Scott Morris held the Spartans to five hits and struck out nine without issuing a walk as the Tigers improved to 4-4 (7-10).

Rich Nybukker had a two-run single in Lick-Wilmerding's four-run fourth inning. Emery fell to 4-4 (7-6).





WORLD EVENTS

World Events

1992 was an eventful year. Our country and community went through an assortment of social, political, and economic changes. We saw the entrance of a Democratic Administration and the exit of the Republican reign. We have seen the effects of the music industry as the issue of censorship came into the public light, or dark as the case may be. Our country also saw the continuation of a long economic recession compounded with two major natural disasters, Hurricanes Andrew and Iniki. Unemployment and the environment were great concerns this year and this was reflected in the political campaigns of 1992 along with the emergence of a capable third candidate. Ross Perot changed our political scene this year by specifically ddressing the National Debt and Budget, making the other two candidates explain their stand on these issues, where they might not have had he not run. 1992 was also the year of the woman in politics. Women had a great effect on our decisions this election year and hopefully we can accept this as a natural change and label the next election year, "The year of the voter." The media played a big role, influencing our opinions of public leaders. One of the most important events this year was the effect that the verdict of the Rodney King trial had on our social system. We, the American public, saw our country go through much needed self-evaluations. And while these evaluations may not be enough, they are a start to bringing our country together.

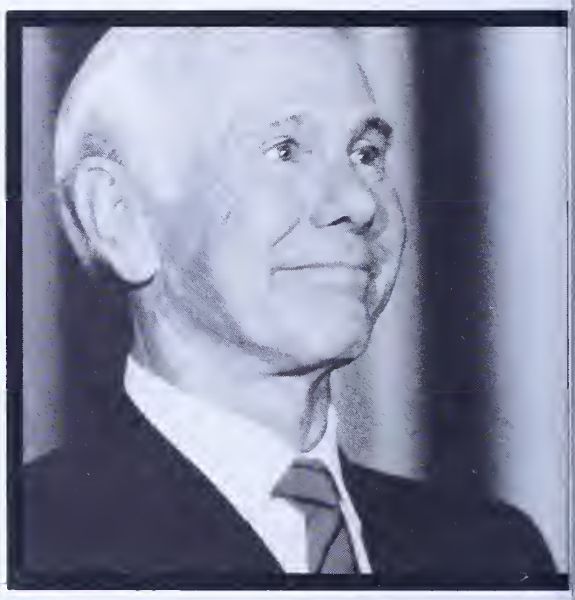
Oh Canada: The Toronto Blue Jays capture the World Series of baseball.



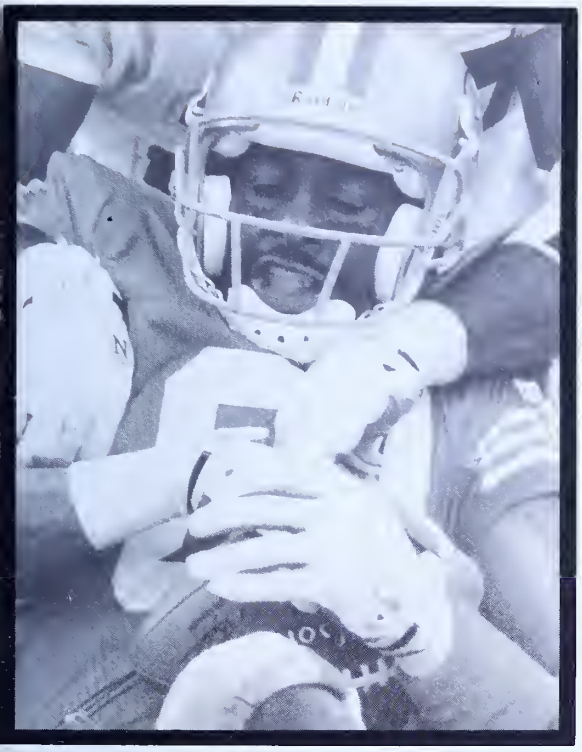
Heeeers Johnny: Johnny Carson hangs up his hat, making way for Jay Leno.

Hail to the new chief: Bill Clinton becomes the 42nd president of the U.S.

Saving grace: The U.S. military rolls into Somalia in an attempt to save the starving people.

Dream team: Magic Johnson leads the U.S. to the gold medal in Barcelona.

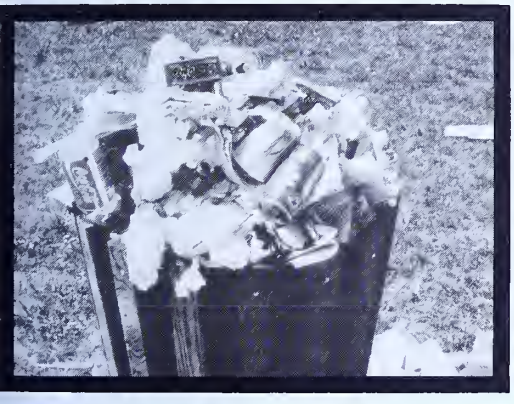
Local success: A one time local sensation, En Vogue took the nations pop charts by storm.

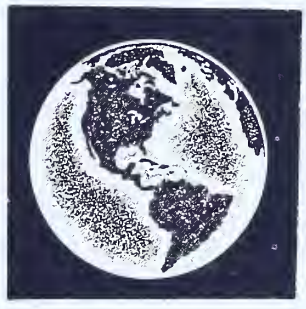


Highway 101, next exit hall of fame: Jerry Rice caught touchdown pass #101 to set a new career TD record.

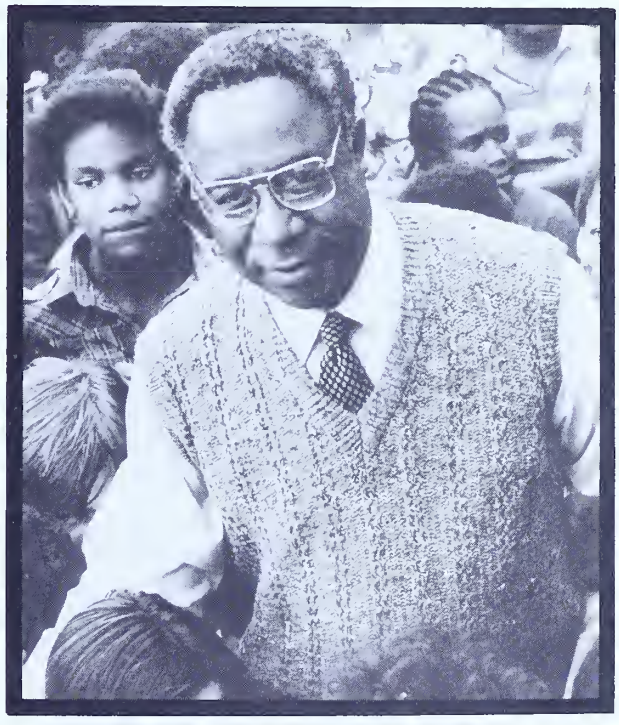
Yugoslavian chaos: After the fall of the USSR, Yugoslavis erupts in a bloody civil war.

A hero falls: Former tennis great Arthur Ashe announces he is HIV positive. After becoming a spokeperson on AIDS and Haitian refugees he succomed to the virus.





Save our planet: A major push to conservation hits the Lick community and the world.



Boris in control: Boris Yeltsin seizes the reins of the crumbling USSR and heads Russia's recovery.

Gaining recognition: Alex Haley's bestseller Malcolm X comes to the big screen. Unfortunately, he passed away this year, but not before his works Roots and Queen gain national attention.

L.A. ablaze: Enraged rioters and looters burn and pillage South Central L.A. in the aftermath of the Rodney King trial.

Strange fruit
words and music by Lewis Allan

Thank you, thank you, thank you very
- much ladies and gentlemen and now I'd like to sing a tune that was written especially for me it's titled "Strange fruit" I hope you'll like it.

Southern trees bear strange fruit
Blood on the leaves and blood at the root
Black bodies swinging in the southern breeze
Strange fruit hanging from the poplar trees

Pastoral scene of the gallnw south
The bulging eyes and the twisted mouth
Scent of magnolia sweet and fresh
Then the sudden smell of burning flesh

Here is a fruit for the crows to pluck
For the rain to gather, for the wind to suck
For the sun to ripe, for the tree to drop
Here is a strange and bitter crop

BACK FROM A WALK

Heaven-murdered one,
among shapes turning serpent
and shapes seeking crystal,
I'll let my hair grow long

With the tree-stump now tuneless and the egg-whit face of a child

With all crack-brained creatures and the tatter of dry-footed water

With the dearmutes of torpor, and the butterfly drowned in the inkwell

Shambling each day with my different face
Ah, heaven-murdered one!

-F. G. Lorca

Not pictured: Greg, Nato, Keoni, Hannah, Rob, Bertina, Ms. Keil, Amber, Adam & everyone else-thanx & I luv y'all!

From there to here,
from here to there,
funny things
are everywhere.

Thanks to everyone who has affected my life in some way in the past seventeen years; Special gratitude goes out to: my dad, for providing me with opportunities too numerous to mention, and for the money which payed for those opportunities, and above all, thanks for being my father.

my mom, for always being there when I needed you.

Ernie, for being you; "You're my Best Friend".

Alex, for being everyone's "bud".

posthumous thanks to Freddie Mercury, for having the world's perfect voice, for writing and performing the music which has kept me going the past year, and for not giving a s t what anyone thought of him. Honorable mentions to his buds Brian May, Roger Taylor, and John Deacon for being most excellent musicians and joining Freddie to form Queen.

Mrs. Keil, for renewing my interest in singing, for providing me with a venue to showcase my talent, and for letting me sing Tenor in Men's Chorus.

all the other teachers I've had, for giving me that extra week , or that second or third chance and John McCarthy, for being the only piano teacher I ever had, and for keeping me interested in music long enough to catch on.

And the things you can't remember tell the things you can't forget that history puts a saint in every dream. An asphyxiophile.And someone will eat the skin that he sheds. No pork, just beef, shoobeedoowah. We're all as mad as hatters here. Ada has a very strange disease, she can't see wine. Height, hell, time, haste, terror, tension. A hundred dollars makes it dark inside. A broken down jalopy of a man I left behind. Ripping apart at the mind. Raise my rent and take off all your clothes. Don't worry 'bout my green funk. Ice Man's mule is parked outside the bar where a man with missing fingers plays a strange guitar and the German dwarf dances with the butcher's son and a little rain never hurt noone. And I'll accept you're invitation to the blues. There's no cause to taint the sweetest taste of blood. Bazanti bootin al zootin al hoot an al cohn. We're chained to the world and we all gotta pull. Wait a minute, don't touch my booty. In the Land of the Blind the one eyed man is king. For I am a Rain Dog, too. Bleeding from nose, throat and ears. And you spill out over the side to anyone who will listen. I'll stab you. Well I've lost my equilibrium, my car keys, and my pride, tattoo parlor's warm and so I huddle there inside, the grinding of the buzz saw, whatchuwanthathingtosay, just don't misspell her name, she's the one that got away. What's your story, well I don't even care. Take a look in the mirror and see the clown in yourself.Oppose all forms of law and authority in the name of chaos.Day after day , love turns gray, like the skin on a dying man. The flames are all long gone but the pain lingers on. No direction home. Loveisafist.I'm the one who's got to die when it's time for me to die, so let me live my life, the way I want to.It's alright she says, take anything you want from me. Erleichda. You will live to a ripe old age; happy in the love and respect of many children.

I still held Ambrose's hat in my left hand, and as I stood there in the great cathedral, dwarfed into insignificance, a stranger in that city of cold beauty and spilt blood, seeing the priest's obesiance to the altar, hearing his lips intone words, centuries old and solemn, that I could not understand, I realized suddenly and sharply the full measure of my loss. Ambrose was dead.

TOP TEN LICK QUOTES 1990-1993

10) "HUGH DONGED!"-- Mike Hasold

9) "Nate likes her woofers." "Can you blame him!" -- Ethen

8) "AAAAAAACHOOOOOOOO!" -- Anthony

7) "Hi, I'll take these, and, uh....Gimmie a Playboy
"You're too young." -- says store owner.
"I told you, we gotta give him more money!"

6) "The Filipino guy? He's my brother." -- Nate explains to the Costco security guard so we try to sneak in.

5) "Hold your dongs until I cut them off."-- Mrs. Keil to chorus

4) "You have a fat burrito."-- Anthony
"I know."-- Ethen
"My burrito's flat." -- Anthony
"You think youre is flat? Look at mine."-- Steve

3)"Have you two been drinking?" -- Mr. Coates to Nate and Earl

2)"On the weekends I like to stay home and pray." -- Quote from Steve's college application

1)"S-ff-sniff. There's s__t all over the car!" -- Nate

Friends and family, it's been a quick 4 years. Looking back it's funny seeing how much we've changed and how much we've stayed the same: I'm still small, Nate's still rude, Anthony still sneezes, Stephen's still Stephen, Ethen's still Ethen, Steve's still Steve, well, you get the picture. Time for some personal "you had to be there" messages: Ethen: You never found that card in that stupid magic trick you did. Don't forget all the fun we had during frees instead of doin' work. Anthony: All I have to say is 1 word and 3 numbers; 16-24-11 and Serramonte! Nate: Is it just me, or are we cheap when it comes to buyin' food? HEY, watch the hair. By the way, ya got yer bike back yet? Steve J: Watcha got in yer dresser? By the way, are you done prayin? Steve L: My frenn lak yu! Got any big boxes of toilet paper? Kathleen: Too much caffeine is really bad for you Ilana: Woman! One of these days I'm gonna spike like you. Christina: Hey. Smile. Don't worry, Lick's not that bad. Tiffany: Hello out there! Take care of yourself and don't stress senior year up at Patricia. Say hi to the family for me, esp. Wacky. -- Sorry about some of the crappy messages. I gotta go before I get donged! Thanks to all my friends for putting up with me these past four years. Thanks to my family, specially Mom, I couldn't have gotten through life without you. Thanks to all my teachers who've been patient and understanding. And last, but not least, I'd like to thank all the little people.

Rebecca, we have been close friends since kindergarden. All through these eight years I have always known that I could depend on you for support and all else. Our friendship will last forever. I LOVE YA' BECKY !

Kisha, when we first met in 9th grade, I knew that you were "my girl." Our friendship has not ceased since then. The good and the bad times only made our friendship stronger and realize some truths. Our friendship will always be there even when we are apart. I LOVE YOU KISH !

GO GIRL!!
IT'S YOU GIRL!!

Tuere: We were best friends in the ninth and tenth grade, but because of situations not in our complete control, our friendship was fractured. But look at us now! We've matured into beautiful, intelligent black women with a good head on our shoulders. This year is "Kisha & Tuere" year, and we're regaining that "old friendship" we once had. There is a big possibility that we might go to the same "black" college, but whether we do or not, All I can say is that you are truly my "best friend," and I LOVE YOU, my sista! PEACE!!!!!

'Kysha. Hey Now! You know I could not graduate w/o saying goodbye to my girl. We have known each other since we were 5... Remember that picture we took in Sac. Ca on my grandparents fireplace. I'll miss our telephone calls, spending the night over each other's house, and most of all I'll miss the evil, sweet, pretty, and carefree Kysha that I luv dearly. See ya!!!

The Artillery Equation

If horizontal velocity is constant, as is true in a true vacuum, and a ball is launched at A degrees and B meters per second, then;

horizontal velocity = i = BcosA vertical velocity = j_i = BsinA change in time = t
distance traveled before impact = d

$j_t = j_i - 9.8(t)$ upon impact $j_t = -j_i$ therefore $2j_i = 9.8(t)$

$d = t(i)$ therefore $t = d/i$

$2j_i = 9.8(d/i)$ and $d = 2j_i i/9.8$
$= 2(BsinA)(BcosA)/9.8$
$= B^2(sin2A)/9.8$

Le Miz

Do you hear the people sing?
Lost in the valley of the night
It is the music of a people who are climbing to the light
For the wrietched of the earth
There is a flame that never dies
Even the darkest night will end and the sun will rise.

They will live again in freedom in the garden of the lord
They will walk behind the plowshare
They will put away the sword
The chain will be broken and all men will have their reward!

I, i, yo, Fausta,
we yearn for ghosts
that only dance
and dance only,
in the mind's I.
Shattered fragments of thought devouring my tranquility with their orgies and pagan feasts.

i am the box
under everyone's bed,
born to conceal
the dancers in my head.

All the world's a stage
was never quite right.
Every woman is a slippery stage
where her Fausta tangos to the ticking of a Seiko watch.

I am Fausta, running through a meadow of green daffodils frantically trying to catch each one only to find
I am running so much
I can't stop smell touch hear feel each flower as it inhales the color soaked air caressing its tender petals.

Fausta wants to run to Paris, reaching for a peach
rotting on the tree, saturated with life and death.

THE GIANTS

We live in an era whose humblest men are becoming greater than the greatest men of preceding ages. What once preoccupied our minds is now of no consequences. The veil of indifference covers it. The beautiful dreams that once hovered in our consciousness have been dispersed like mist. In their place are giants moving like tempest, raging like seas, breathing like volcanoes.

What destiny will the giants bring the world at the end of their struggles ?

Good Luck Taffeta.
